

Development of a Medical College and MD Degree Program UNT Health Science Center

DRAFT

Table of Contents

1. Executive Summary
2. Why a new medical college? (Community health, economic benefits, etc.)
3. Mission and Vision
 - a. Inter-professional Education Opportunities: TCOM, GSBS, SPH, SHP, and other academic partners
4. Guiding Principle
 - a. Assuring the quality, growth, and culture of the Texas College of Osteopathic Medicine and the DO degree program
5. Organizational Structure of New Medical College: Governance and Leadership
6. Academic Plan: curriculum concept and process, numbers of students
7. Faculty and Staff
8. Students: recruitment and admissions
9. Infrastructure Requirements: Student Affairs, Information Technology, Library, Laboratories, Lecture Halls, Classrooms, Clinical Teaching Centers, etc.
10. Hospital Partnerships: JPS, Texas Health Resources, THR-Harris Methodist, Plaza Medical Center, Cook Children's, Baylor-All Saints, etc.
11. Financial Analysis: start-up costs, operating costs, revenue sources, etc.
12. Advancement and Donor Opportunities along with Community Partnerships
13. LCME (Liaison Committee on Medical Education) Accreditation Process
14. LCME Accreditation Timeline
15. Risk Analysis: impact on primary care and specialty physician supply, impact on regional GME development, impact on Tarrant County health system, community job creation impact, economic development, student choice, patient choice, physician and scientist recruitment and retention, hospital and clinical partnership, financial impact to UNTHSC, research and commercialization of new products, community engagement, donor relationships, etc.
16. Next steps if approved by Board of Regents
17. Appendix I: Hospital Support
18. Appendix II: Community Support