Code of Professional Behavior

Students, as representatives of the University of North Texas Health Science Center, are expected to conduct themselves in an ethical and professional manner. The purpose of the Statement of Professional Values is to provide students with a basic understanding of the values of the Health Science Center and should be used by students in their professional activities.

Professional Conduct and Values:

- Conduct themselves at all times in a manner appropriate to a physician, physician assistant, scientist, or public health professional.
- Observe professional courtesy in the classroom by arriving promptly for lectures and exams, treating all lecturers with respect.
- Conduct themselves professionally in demeanor, use of language, and appearance in the classroom, ambulatory clinics, hospitals, labs, and in the professional setting.
- Dress in a fashion such that they are accepted as professionals, especially in the clinical or internship setting.
- Be neat, clean, and practice good personal hygiene.
- Give appropriate respect to all faculty, staff, and fellow students.
- Work in a collaborative and cooperative manner.
- Represent the institution and act in such a manner as to justify public trust and confidence, to uphold and enhance the good standing and reputation of the institution, and to serve the public interest. Comply with all policies and procedures of the University of North Texas Health Science Center and be specifically familiar with the following policies which are located in the Student Handbook:
 - Policy on consensual relationships
 - Policy on substance abuse
 - Policy on sexual harassment
 - Policies on discrimination
 - Policy on Code of Student Conduct
- Adhere to any and all policies not stated here, but set forth in the Health Science Center Student Handbook and respective school catalogue.
- Cooperate fully with all authorized inquiries or investigations related to any suspected violation of the UNT System institution's policies and procedures.
