G-Force Constitution
University of North Texas Health Science Center

Preamble

We the University of North Texas Health Science Center G-Force organization strive to help enroll an additional 300,000 academically prepared people beyond the 200,000 enrollment growth projected based on current trends into Texas higher education by 2015.

Article I – Purpose of Organization

The purpose of this organization is to raise awareness among students and their families and other influences about the benefits of higher education and how to prepare for it academically and financially, and to motivate students to successfully pursue higher education.

Article II – Honor Code

All members and advisors are required to follow the honor code. The Honor Code for the organization is as follows:

(1) I will place continued academic success as a priority for others and myself.
(2) I am committed to maintaining both an attitude and an environment that recognize the dignity of each individual and encourage appreciation of diverse backgrounds, opinions, and goals in life.
(3) I am committed to honesty and integrity in all personal, social, and academic endeavors.
(4) I recognize that a successful organization requires a team effort, and I pledge to work together with others in the organization.
(5) I will respond promptly, courteously, and positively to the concerns and requests of the organization.
(6) I will strive to fulfill my responsibilities in an effective, efficient, and timely manner.
(7) I will conduct myself in a manner that is respectful of others and worthy of respect from others.
(8) I will dress appropriately for any and all occasions.
(9) I will abide by all rules, regulations, policies, and procedures of the University and The Texas Higher Education Board, as well as all applicable local, state, and federal laws.

Article III – Membership

Section 1. Membership

A. Active Members
An Active Member is a student who:
